Educational Notices.

DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIES.

Silk Weaving Institute, Berhampore.

Minister-in-charge : The Hon'ble Hadji Mr. A. K. Abu Ahmed Khan Ghuznavi.

The Silk Spinning and Weaving Institute at Berhampore has been established by the Government of Bengal to impart instruction in improved methods and to revive an industry which was formerly one of the glories of Bengal. A highly trained staff has been recruited and the institute is fitted with the latest types of hand and power driven machinery. The dyeing department is likewise up-to-date in every respect.

2. The institute offers two courses of instructions, namely, (1) Advanced and (2) Artisan Courses. The period of instruction for the "Advanced Course" extends to two years and-a-half and for "Artisan Course" to one year only.

Students who have passed the Matriculation Examination of any University or have been trained in one of the Technical Schools affiliated to the Overseer Examination Board up to the Sub-Overseer Standard are eligible for admission to "Advanced Course."

The Artisan Course is meant primarily for the sons of silk reelers and weavers, and preference will be given to them.

3. The first session will commence in the third week of July, and intending students should apply at once for admission to the—

Head Master,
Silk Institute,
Berhampore, Murshidabad,

who will furnish all necessary particulars and form for application.

4. Ten scholarships of Rs. 10 each a month will be awarded to students of the first-year class on the results of a test examination which will be held shortly after the commencement of the session. Ten scholarships of Rs. 10 each a month will be awarded to the students of the second-year class on the results of the annual examination of the first-year class. Four scholarships in the first-year class and four in the second-year class will be reserved for Muhammadans.

Fifteen scholarships of Rs. 4 each and fifteen scholarships of Rs. 6 each a month for one year will be awarded to the Artisan students.

These scholarships are primarily intended for Bengalee students or students domiciled in Bengal.

Notice.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

Notice.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

Notice.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

W. S. ADIE, Collector.

In the Court of the Fourth Sub-Judge of Dacca.

TITLE SUIT No. 193 of 1926.

Revati Mohan Das, son of late Babu Gour Chandra Das of 109, Walter Road, police-station Sutrapur, in the town of Dacca, plaintiff, versus

1. Jatindra Mohan Ghosh, common manager in suit No. 1 of 1886 (Bengal Tenancy Act), District Judge's Court, Dacca, resident of Mubarakdi, police-station Matlabganj, district Tippera.
2. Sreemati Jagat Lakshmi Devi, wife of Babu Srish Chandra Chatterjee, at present residing at Patlakhan Lane, police-station Sutrapur, district Dacca, defendants.
3. Lalit Kumar Roy Chowdhury, son of late Raj Kumar Roy Chowdhury, Boalia, police-station Matlabganj, district Tippera.
4. Guru Charan Poddar, son of unknown of Binnadi, police-station Chandpur, district Tippera.
5. Anwar Ali Sarkar, son of late Muhammad Safi Sarkar of Eklaapur, police-station Matlabganj, district Tippera, pro-defendants.

NOTICE is hereby given to all whom it may concern that the common manager, late Raj Mohan Guha, appointed in suit No. 1 of 1886 in the Court of the District Judge of Dacca under Bengal Tenancy Act (section 93) in the interests and for the benefit of the estate had taken from Revati Mohan Das, plaintiff in above-mentioned suit No. 193 of 1926, a loan of Rs. 30,000 on a mortgage bond executed by him on the 5th Magh 1322 B.S. with the permission and under order of the District Judge and mortgaged the properties under his control and management and hereinafter described in the schedule below and the said common manager had therewith paid of the former mortgage debts and decretal amount against the said estate.

Now the aforesaid plaintiff Revati Mohan Das has filed the above suit on the said mortgage bond in this Court, claiming a sum of Rs. 41,785-13-9 and prayed for a mortgage decree in preliminary form for the said amount with cost and interest for the period of suit till realisation and in default of payment within the time of grace after the preliminary decree, for a final decree for realising the said dues by the sale of the mortgage properties, and also in case there be any deficit, for realising the balance out of the other assets in the hands and under the control of the common manager.

In the above suit the present common manager Jatindra Mohan Ghosh is defendant No. 1 and the subsequent mortgagee Jagat Lakshmi Devi is defendant No. 2. Though the said common manager (defendant No. 1) fully represents the estate under his control and management under the circumstances of the case, yet in order to avoid possible future objections the plaintiff has applied for and has been permitted by this Court under order 1, rule 8 of the Civil Procedure Code, to sue the pro forma defendants Nos. 3 to 5, as representatives and on behalf of all persons interested in the said mortgage security and in the equity of redemption and the said suit has been fixed for settlement of issues on 15th February 1927.

Notice is therefore hereby given under Civil Procedure Code, order 1, rule 8. Any other interested person may apply if he chooses to be made a party to the suit.

Notice.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premium paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

Notice.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.
